

Call for Artists Submissions

SUBMISSIONS:

Submissions are open now through March 30th.

Digital entries can be uploaded through this link:

<https://renacci.house.gov/index.cfm?p=art-competition>.

All submissions must include student and school name. Limit of one entry per student.

All participants are welcome to have their artwork displayed in a week-long, gallery show at the Medina Public Library the first week in April.

Please contact Christina Trompower at christina.trompower@mail.house.gov to arrange artwork pickup/dropoff.

AWARDS:

All submissions, both digital and physical, will be judged by an independent panel of judges. Three winners will have their artwork displayed in Congressman Renacci's Washington DC office with the overall Best in Show winner displayed in the U.S. Capital building for one year. The grand prize also includes a trip for two to Washington DC.

CONGRESSMAN JIM RENACCI

would like to issue a call for entries for this year's annual Congressional Art Competition.
