

Introducing MCDL's New Bookmobile!

The Bookmobile has many of the capabilities of a physical library. Patrons can apply for a library card, place holds, and browse the collection. The vehicle is a Wi-Fi hotspot.

The new Bookmobile is designed with the needs of the youngest and most senior patrons in mind. It features a lift and specialty book carts that can be rolled inside senior facilities. These carts lock in place and serve as additional browsing for patrons who board the bus at public stops.

Bookmobile History

- 1948 The Bookmobile debuted at the County Fair. It began serving outlying areas and schools in Brunswick, Lodi, and Liverpool.
- 1950 The Bookmobile started making stops in Seville.
- 1958 A second Bookmobile was acquired. One had adult materials for community stops and the other carried materials for schools.
- 1962 The 1948 Bookmobile was replaced.
- 1966 The 1958 Bookmobile was retired.
- 1982 Bookmobile service was suspended when the library became a county library, not a school system library.
- 1991 A new 28-foot Bluebird bus took to the roads.
- 2005 After 14 years a new Bookmobile debuts, retiring the 1991 model.
- 2021 MCDL debuts a new Bookmobile in August.

Staff Quotes

“ You have no idea how exciting it is getting to plan for, design, and finally receive a new Bookmobile. It only happens about once every 15 years. It's like adding a new member to the family. ”

Ann Plazek, Outreach Services Manager

“ The Bookmobile takes the best things about a library, materials, and its staff, to people who can no longer make the journey to the libraries. ”

Abbie, Library Associate on the Bookmobile
